

California Council for the Social Studies
AN AFFILIATE OF NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR SOCIAL STUDIES

621 W. Magnolia St. Stockton, CA 95203
Email: info@ccss.org

Carol Marquis Global Understanding Award
FOR OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTIONS IN HELPING SOCIAL STUDIES
STUDENTS INCREASE THEIR UNDERSTANDING OF THE WORLD

Purpose This award was named for Carol Marquis, a respected educator who significantly influenced social studies teachers and students to understand global perspectives. It is awarded to a California educator who has made notable contributions in helping social studies students increase their understanding of the world.

Nomination Process

- Nominations may be submitted by a CCSS member, a CCSS local council or a CCSS member working in a statewide organization/institution.
- If nominee is selected for award, the nominator shall send or present in person, a one minute introduction of the nominee.

Membership Status

- A current member of CCSS at the time of nomination.
- Nominee must be teaching in a k-12 school or university at least half time.
- Not an elected member of the CCSS Executive Committee at the time of the nomination.
- Not a member of the Selection Committee at the time of the nomination.

Criteria

Nominee:

1. Ensures that students learn and apply global education within the social studies.
2. Infuses primary and secondary sources (websites, documents, media, literature, people, etc.)
3. Makes use of current scholarship/methodology to inform students of historical, cultural, political, economic, technological, or environmental changes across the planet.

Award

Each award recipient will receive:

- A plaque
- A complimentary registration at the "Award Year" Conference
- A check award in the amount of $100.00
- The winner may present a showcase session during the "Award Year" Conference.

Sponsored by Bay Area Council for the Social Studies

Selection Process

1. The selection committee will consist of current members of the Professional Standards Committee, an Executive Committee Member/Board Member and may include a past recipient of the award.
2. Selection committee members will have no conflict of interest with award nominees.
3. The selection committee will include at least one Bay Area for the Social Studies officer.

Required Documentation

It is the responsibility of the nominator to provide all nomination materials.

1. A vita or professional resume
2. A narrative statement describing the nominee's exemplary practice, teaching philosophy and unique qualifications. (maximum 2 pages)
3. Supporting documentation may include reproductions of newspaper articles, teaching evaluations and letters of support from a professional colleague, immediate supervisor, parent or student. Not to exceed ten pages.
4. Video or portfolio with unit plan, lesson(s), and student materials; which provide a visual/hands-on of the nominee's expertise as a teacher.
5. Application Cover Sheet
6. Maximum of 100 word biographical statement to be used in the conference program
7. Headshot photo of nominee to be used in the conference program

Submission of Nomination Applications and Required Materials

Complete applications with all required materials are due to CCSS no later than 11:59pm on December 8th. Application materials will NOT be returned. Please retain a copy for your records. Applications and materials submitted via email must be sent to info@ccss.org. Videos may be provided via links to such sites as Teacher Tube or You Tube, or may be saved to a flash drive or disc and sent to the CCSS Awards Recognition Program via US/Private Mail Carrier to:

CCSS
Awards Recognition Program
621 W. Magnolia St. Stockton, CA 95203

Only complete applications will be considered.