

California Council for the Social Studies
AN AFFILIATE OF NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR SOCIAL STUDIES

621 W. Magnolia St. Stockton, CA 95203
Email: info@ccss.org

Outstanding Higher Education Social Studies Teacher of the Year

Purpose The purpose of the CCSS Outstanding Higher Education Social Studies Teacher of the Year is to recognize a CCSS member whose higher education instruction and professional practices reflect the goals and purposes of an exemplary social studies education.

Nomination Process

- Co-workers, administrators, or local councils may nominate a candidate. Individual teachers may also self-nominate.
- If nominee is selected for award, the nominator shall send or present in person, a one minute introduction of the nominee.

Membership Status

- A current member in CCSS at the time of nomination.
- Nominee must be instructing in an institution of higher education in the area of history, social sciences, and/or history education.
- Not an elected member of the CCSS Executive Committee at the time of the nomination.
- Not a member of the Selection Committee at the time of the nomination.

Criteria Candidates have demonstrated an exceptional ability to excel in at least five of the six areas listed below.

1. Develops and/or uses instructional materials creatively and effectively.
2. Incorporates innovative and/or verified effective instructional strategies and techniques.
3. Utilizes new scholarship from history, the social sciences or other appropriate fields.
4. Fosters a spirit of inquiry and the development of skills related to acquiring, organizing, processing, and using information and making decisions related to both domestic and international matters.
5. Fosters the development of democratic beliefs and values, and the skills needed for citizenship participation appropriate college age students, school, and community settings.
6. Evidence of professional involvement through activities such as workshops, curriculum development, committees, and other association activities.

Award Each award recipient will receive:

- A plaque
- A complimentary registration at the “Award Year” Conference
- The winner may present a showcase session during the “Award Year” Conference

Selection Process

1. The selection committee will consist of current members of the Professional Standards Committee, an Executive Committee Member/Board Member and may include a past recipient of the award.

2. Selection committee members will have no conflict of interest with award nominees.

Required Documentation

It is the responsibility of the nominator to provide all nomination materials.

1. A vita or professional resume
2. A narrative statement describing the nominee's exemplary practice, teaching philosophy and unique qualifications. (maximum 2 pages)
3. Supporting documentation may include reproductions of newspaper articles, teaching evaluations and letters of support from a professional colleague, immediate supervisor, parent or student. Not to exceed ten pages.
4. Video or portfolio with unit plan, lesson(s), and student materials; which provide a visual/hands-on of the nominee's expertise as a teacher.
5. Application Cover Sheet
6. Maximum of 100 word biographical statement to be used in the conference program
7. Headshot photo of nominee to be used in the conference program

Submission of Nomination Applications and Required Materials

Complete applications with all required materials are due to CCSS no later than 11:59pm on December 8th. Application materials will NOT be returned. Please retain a copy for your records. Applications and materials submitted via email must be sent to info@ccss.org. Videos may be provided via links to such sites as Teacher Tube or You Tube, or may be saved to a flash drive or disc and sent to the CCSS Awards Recognition Program via US/Private Mail Carrier to:

CCSS
Awards Recognition Program
621 W. Magnolia St. Stockton, CA 95203

Only complete applications will be considered.