

Table of Contents

The New History-Social Science Framework

Annual Issue 2017– 2018

Authors	Article Title	Page
Michelle Herczog	Implementing the 2016 California History-Social Science Framework	4
Thomas Adams	California’s New History-Social Science Curriculum Framework	6
Beth Slutsky	Four Components of a Well-Rounded History-Social Science Education	8
Michelle Herczog & Yvonne Contreras	Promoting History-Social Science in your District’s LCAP and Accountability Dashboard Report	11
Marshall Croddy	Can Social Studies Teachers Save Democracy?	19
Al Rocca	A Story (Still) Well Told	22
Ross Dunn	The World History Courses in the New Framework	25
Joshua Mitton & Jim Charkins	The New Role of Economics in California K-12 Education	31
Gerald Lieberman	Environmental Principles for Everyday Life	35
Rob Vicario	What’s the Question? Promoting Inquiry Driven Instruction	39
Lisa Hutton & Diane Hembacher	Create Space for History-Social Science in Elementary Classrooms to Foster Content Knowledge, Inquiry, Literacy, and Citizenship	44
Rebecca Valbuena	It’s Elementary! Inspiration for Young Learners	51
Ruth Baskett	English Learners in the History Social Science Classroom	55
Kenneth McDonald	Access and Equity – Now, More than Ever	61
Damon Huss & Tascha Folsoi	A Brief Introduction to the FAIR Education Act for Social Studies Educators	65
Michelle Herczog & Yvonne Contreras	What Page is it On? Introducing the California History-Social Science Instructional Materials Adoption Toolkit	71
Bill Honig	Where Can Teachers Find Resources to Implement the New History/Social Science Framework	74
Priscilla Porter	How Does the New History-Social Science Framework Change Instruction?	78
Amy Vigil	Strategies to Support the History-Social Science Framework	82
Linda Tubach	Highlights of the History-Social Science Framework	85
David Matheson	Using Technology to Teach Social Studies	87
Art Shostak	Achieving a Holocaust Education Reset: Adding the Help Story	90